MILLERSBURG COLLEGE, FOR YOUNG LADIES!

No Better Place to Educate the Daughters of Kentucky
METHODISTS:

Among schools for girls this one occupies an enviable position. Healthful, moral influences, strict attention to physical comfort in the boarding department, retining, home-like discipline, the high grade of scholarship required in all its classes, together with reasonable prices, commend it to the favorable consideration of parents and guardians seeking a first class school for their daughters and wards.

Tuition FREE to all Pastors who board their daughters in the College, and to all young ladies preparing to teach who beard with us

Address, REV. CADESMAN POPE MILLERSBURG, KY.

SKETCH OF BISHOP HAYGOOD.

BY REV. G G. SMITH, D D --- CONDENSED

TTICUS GREENE HAYGOOD, the son of Greene B. Haygood, Esq., was born about 1838, in Watkinsville, Oconee county, Ga. His mother was the daughter of Josiah Askew, one of Asbury's early preachers. She married young Greene B. Haygood, a rising lawyer.

Their first son, a brainy boy, was Atticus. While Atlanta was a small city, Mr. Havgood moved there. Atticus was converted there when about fourteen years of age. He went to Emory College, where he boarded with John W. Yarbrough, a Methodist preacher of fine parts. In this home the boy found a gentle, blue-eyed maid, the daughter of his host, and they were soon engaged. In the societies he was soon at the head of the debaters. He made fine progress where progress was worth something. During a revival there a full consecration and heart purity was professed. He resolved to be a preacher and was licensed just before he graduated. He was married as soon as the diploma was secured, and began at once his life work. All who knew him saw that a strong man had come. The first year he was sent on a city mission in Columbus, but really as assistant to old Dr. Pierce. From the first day his progress has been onward. He was a chaplain during the war, but soon returned to the pastorate. After the war he was pastor of Trinity, then on a mountain district, then on Atlanta district. He was elected to the General Conference in 1870 and, on the Sunday School Committee. he was really the author of our present system. He was at once chosen Sunday School Secretary. Why he resigned few know. Emory College was prostrate; no endowment, and half a humdred pupils. He became its President. Here he wrote "Our He left the college in fine trim. He wrote "The Children." Brother in Black," which made him Secretary and Agent of the Slater Fund. He was elected Bishop, but declined. Four years later he was again elected and accepted. Of his works, "The Man of Gallilee" is a masterpiece, but some think "The Monk and The Prince" the best. Broad, generous, intense, unselfish, fearless, despising cant and conventionality, he is one of the figures of this country.

Motion carried.

The report as amended was adopted.

Board of Colportage reported as follow: Your Board of Colportage, having no data, have no report for the year just closed, and as we were unable to secure the services of a suitable person, do not recommend the appointment of a colporteur for the present year.

Respectfully Submitted,

W. S. Grinstead, Chairman. Wm. Shoesmith, Sec'y.

The order of the day having arrived, the Bishop called Question 40: "Where shall the next session of the Conference be held?"

Somerset was unanimously chosen.

The following paper presented by W. E. Arnold was adopted:

No history of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Kentucky, has ever been written. For fifty years we have toiled, but there is no record of our labors. The volumes of Dr. Redford close with the year 1844, the year Episcopal Methodism in America was divided. The record of the labors and triumphs of our branch of the church in this State, exists only in scattered fragments and in the memories of men that are fast passing away. The collection and preservation of historical data is a matter of the greatest importance to us.

If this is ever done, there is no time to lose. Already much valuable information has been buried with the veterans who have passed from us to the church on high. Others will soon join the innumerable company, and if what they know is ever related to the world, they must speak without delay. Co-operation in the collection of these facts of history is needed in order that it may be well and thoroughly done. Therefore be it

Resolved, That this body appoint a committee of three, who shall at once formulate and report to us a plan for the establishment of a Historical Society for the purpose of collecting and preserving materials, from which a history of our church in Kenserving tucky during the last half century may be written.

W. E. ARNOLD, G. S. SAVAGE.

Report of the committee on Orphan's Home was read and adopted. See appendix.

Report of the committee on Temperance was read, and motion to strike out "preachers informing themselves," was carried.

The report as amended was adopted.

Substitute of Dr. Walker, that it be referred to a committee of seven, viz., two from Conference Board of Education, two from Kentucky Wesleyan College Board, and three from Millersburg, the three to be nominated by P. E. and P. C. of that place, was carried.

The following were elected: Conference Board—W. T. Bolling, J. J. Dickey; Ky. W. C. Board—H. P. Walker, W. E. Arnold; Millersburg—C. Pope, Wm. M. Miller, W. M. Britt.

A paper, organizing "The Immediate Relief Fund Society," was presented by Julius E. Wright and E. G. B. Mann, and adopted by the Conference. See appendix.

According to its provisions the following were elected as officers of the Society: Julius E. Wright, President; J. R. Deering, First Vice President; T. F. Taliaferro, Second Vice President; E. G. B. Mann, Secretary; C. J. Nugent, Treasurer.

Subscriptions were called for, and there were taken 101 ordinary and 8 life memberships, amounting in all to $423.

The time was indefinitely extended.

The Examining Committees reported that, after joint conference, they had agreed upon the following per cents necessary to pass those committees: For admission on trial, 85 per cent.: first, second, third and fourth years, 75 per cent.

The following were elected members of the Board of Education: W. F. Taylor, E. G. B. Mann, in place of J. W. Fitch, resigned; Milton J. Durham, in place of J. W. Proctor, deceased, W. A. Sears.

Dr. Pearce was added to the committee on Campton School, and the committee was empowered to control said institution and school till next session of the Conference.

The following was adopted:

Whereas, The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, has received through the Board of Education of Kentucky Wesleyan College, the expression of a most fraternal and generous overture from Bro. E. W. Cole, of Cincinnati, looking to liberal and fraternal aid in promoting the work of education under the auspices of this Conference; therefore,

(1) Resolved, That this body receives with most appreciative and fraternal regard, this expression from our generous and esteemed brother, and would beg to assure him of its high regard of his munificent purpose and the further assurance of our sincere and fraternal esteem of his thoughtful and benevolent consideration

(2) That in pursuance of his wishes we will take into careful consideration, with suitable and prompt action, the steps necessary to serve the proposed interest.

E. H. Pearce. J. Reeves.

H. P. Walker offered the following which was adopted:

Resolved. That each Presiding Elder's District of the Kentucky Annual Conference, select some central church within its bounds to be the depository of the Quarterly Conference Records and Church Registers, that have been filled up and laid aside for new ones; deeds of churches and other records and matters of history belonging to the District, and that the preacher in charge of said church be the custodian of these documents.

H. P. WALKER, G. S. SAVAGE, R. HINER, GEO. H. MEANS.

The following presented by W. E. Arnold was adopted:

We, your Committee, appointed to formulate and report a plan for the establishment of a Historical Society in the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South, recognize the importance of the work contemplated, and the necessity of co-operation in accomplishing the end proposed. We find it impossible, however, to conserve a plan that is not beset by great difficulties and liable to serious objections. After a thorough canvass of the matter, we suggest the following:

Let all who are interested in this work and will pledge themselves to aid in the collection of historical materials and in the furtherance of the plans of the Association, give their names to the Secretary of the Conference. Then let the persons whose names are thus taken proceed to organize themselves by electing a President, Secretary and Treasurer and an Executive Committee composed of these officers and four other members. Let the association be called "The Historical Association of the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South. Let the Executive Committee draft a Constitution and By-Laws and report the same to the Association at the next meeting of our Conference. In the mean time let every member busy himself in collecting documents, securing sketches, and place the same in the hands of the Secretary of the Association for arrangement and preservation."

The following officers were elected: J. R. Deering, President; W. E. Arnold, Secretary; C. Pope, Treasurer.

The following resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

The seventy-fifth session of Kentucky Annual Conference now assembled in the city of Winchester, would beg to express in an especial manner, their fraternal appreciation of the hospitable entertainment extended to the body by the citizens, homes and churches of the city of Winchester, also to the railroad authorities for reduced rates in transportation to and from the Conference.

We beg to renew every expression of regard that we may command to present to the citizens, homes and churches of this city, our heartfelt esteem for the generous welcome to their midst, their thoughtful and timely courtesies, and their all abounding, generous hospitality.

As in one sense, representing a capital of the Conference, in the institution of the church located in their midst, their regard and service for this body has been worthy of their commanding trust.

We invoke the blessing of our God upon these homes that have so royally received us. Upon our brethren of sister churches, whose altars have been made ours, and upon all who have combined by their kindness to make this one of the most delightful of the seventy-five sessions of this body.

John Reeves, C. F. Oney.

The report of the Board of Missions was read and adopted. See appendix.

Report of Joint Board of Finance was read and adopted. See appendix and tables.

The Minutes were read and approved.

Appendix.

Report of the Board of Missions.

Middlesboro District embraces most of the missionary territory in the bounds of the Kentucky Conference. The outlook in this district is more encouraging than at any previous period in the history of our church. The Presiding Elder, Rev. C. F. Oney, states that during the past quadrennium, seventeen church buildings have been erected, fifteen hundred souls have been converted and five hundred claim the blessing of entire sanctification, and that there is an awakened interest on the subject of christian education, prophetic of growth and increase of piety. He also reports considerable increase in collections for pastors and benevolent claims. During the year we have had sixteen missionaries employed, who report a membership of twenty-one hundred and seventy-nine—thirty-four Sunday Schools having 1680 scholars and 213 officers and teachers. The net increase in members is 246.

Most encouraging reports have been received during the year from foreign fields. The Secretaries of the Parent Board write cheering words of the work in the East. Japan a new force, Corea under reconstruction, and China humble and teachable as never before. The Emperor in Pekin seeks in the Christian's Bible the hidden springs of national power.

"In Japan distributions of portions of scripture among Chinese prisoners and Japanese soldiers has been authorized by the Government and Christian Chaplains commissioned for army service.

This statement should beget a feeling of the deepest gratitude in every christian's heart. As members of the Kentucky Conference, we are especially thankful to God for the unprecedented success attending the labors of our Brother C. F. Reid in China. Three hundred conversions have crowned his efforts during the last eight or ten months.

The Board asks that you note the following:

First: That all collections for missions be made before the first Sunday in April, and that twenty-five per cent. of the claims be paid to our Home Missionaries by the Treasurer of the Conference Board, on receipt of a statement from the Presiding Elder that the work has been done.

Second. The Board has appointed its own Secretary as Conference Secretary.

Third. The President, Treasurer and Secretary of the Board were appointed a committee to receive donations for home missionaries, such as Christmas and Thanksgiving offerings.

Fourth. It is gratifying to have had Dr. W. R. Lambuth with us, and we feel sure his earnest words have stimulated all who heard him to more earnest work in the missionary cause.

Fifth. Since our people cannot have the missionary spirit who do not read our missionary literature, we therefore urge our pastors to assist in circulating tracts, books, papers, especially The Methodist Review of Missions and The World for Christ.

Sixth. P. H. Hoffman was elected Vice-President of the Board.

The following allowances were made for 1895 and 1896.

Report of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

The report of the Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, for fiscal year March 1894-95, to the Kentucky Annual Conference in session at Winchester is as follows:

Number of adult auxiliaries 102, with an approximate membership of 1338. Juvenile auxiliaries 28, with an approximate membership of 1032.

Total membership 2370. Fourteen new anxiliaries and reorganizations have been effected, adding 159 members; and 397 Woman's Missionary Advocates are taken, with thirty-two new subscribers.

Ten new life-memberships have been made. As a Conference Society, we have five honorary life-memberships, each representing the gift of $100. Collections $3,498.67. The wisdom of the action had at our annual meeting in June in providing for the office of Conference Organizer and Visitor is seen in eleven new auxiliaries and reorganizations, with an addition of some 120 members during the last three months.

As in the beginning of Woman's work for woman the Missionaries' wives were important factors in its organization, even so now, for the success and progress of the work, much depends upon their co-operation; and their help is earnestly solicited, that they will, upon the entrance of the new Conference year, aid in sustaining organizations already at work, and endeavor to secure new organizations wherever practicable.

Blanks for reports of organization and necessary literature will be forwarded by me upon application.

Respectfully submitted.

Mrs. George N. Buffington,

Conference Secretary.

Buffington, Ky., Sept. 18, 1895.

Report of the Board of Church Extension.

We report with pleasure that we have been able, in some measure, to render assistance to every applicant for the same. For the first time, the number of applicants and amounts sought, more nearly approximate the sum of money at our disposal. But we would not have you understand that we gave to each applicant the whole amount sought: most of the applicants believe in the word of the Book in "asking largely."

The receipts for this work for the present year show an increase of $61.46 over our last report. This is encouraging, and we feel thankful; but even yet, we have not paid quite 50 per cent. on the assessment made upon our Conference by the Parent Board.

To show the success that has attended the working of this arm of our church, I quote briefly from the report of the Corresponding Secretary: "During the thirteen years of our existence our Conference Board has expended about $7,500, and thereby aided more than fifty churches, which, without our help, might not, doubtless would not, have been built. In the same period we have added to the Loan Fund the sum of $1,691.10."

Responding to the request of the Parent Board, and which we most heartily endorse, we have appropriated the sum of $13.69 for the purpose of meeting expense of publication and assisting in the distribution of our "Church Extension Bulletin." We have also requested our President, Dr. Hiner, to send special articles in behalf of our work to the church press.

After careful investigation of applications presented, we have made appropriations as follows:

Burgin, Mercer County, Ky	$100	()()
Lancaster, Garrard County, Ky	150	00
Owenton, Owen County, Ky	100	60

Report of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society.

The report of Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society of the Kentucky Conference to the annual Conference in session at Winchester, is as follows:

In reporting the number of auxiliaries this year as near as possible, only active societies have been given, which reduces the number apparently, but the working force is really larger, as the increase in dues will show. During the year there have been organized nine auxiliaries—six adult and three juvenile, yet the cutting off of dead societies reduces the whole number to only fifty. Whole number of members, 665; amount of dues, $500; amount raised for local work, $460; parsonages helped by the Conference Society since its organization, nine, to the amount of $1,520; number of societies reporting books of shares sold for the Mutual Building Fund, 12; number of subscribers to "Our Homes," 85; number of patrons of the "Preachers' Wives' Loan Fund," 4; a bequest of $500 from Mrs. Rebecca Stephens, of the Scott Street Church, Covington, Ky.

"The Sue Bennett Memorial School," has been located at London, Laurel county, in the center of the mountain region. The citizens of London, desiring to secure a high-grade school, proposed putting $20,000 into a site and buildings, provided the Parsonage and Home Mission Society would raise an endowment of $20,000 for its support. Fifteen thousand dollars has been pledged by the citizens of London and $5,000 by the P. and H. M. Society of the Kentucky Conference; of this amount Kentucky Conference has $4,700, the remaining $300 we hope to secure soon. The Central Committee agrees to donate $1,300 annually (being 6½ per cent. of the endowment) to the maintenance of the school, until the endowment fund could be raised.

It behooves us, who desire to follow God as he opens the way for the conversion of the world, to enter this open door of opportunity—and woe be to us, if we stand as clouds before the sun. His command is, "Preach the Gospel to every creature," not only in China and Mexico, but the heathen are among us at our very door.

Respectfully Submitted,

KATE PETRY, Conference Secretary.

The Board of Education.

The Board of education of Kentucky Wesleyan College, M. E. Church, South, would begleave to make its report to the Conference as follows:

We congratulate the church upon the election of Rev. E. H. Pearce, A. M., D. D., to the presidency of the College and to fill the chair of Psychology and Ethics, and that we have been able to secure the valuable services of D. W. Batson, A. M., Professor of Natural Science; W. H. Garnett, P. H. B., Professor of Mathematics and French; B. T. Speucer, A. M., Professor of Greek and German; Marvin West, A. M., Professor of Latin and History; James L. Clark, Principal of the Preparatory Department: G. F. Burner, Professor of Typewriting and Shorthand.

The co-educational feature has been continued with the most satisfactory results.

Good boarding is furnished at the Dormitory at the vate of from $2 to $2.25 per week. Several students have already taken advantage of this opportunity to secure these low vates.

The completion of the building is a fact of the most gratifying character. The favorable conditions should be an inspiration to the Conference and the church to go forward in this great educational enterprise. With such a president and faculty the success of the work is assured, if the Conference will heartily and actively co-operate with them in carrying forward the plans formulated to give efficacy to their labors.

The following action was taken by the Board at Lexington, Ky., July 4, 1895:

Resolved. That the Board issue $6,000 of coupon bonds of the denomination of $500 each, payable to bearer, interest at six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, to be dated July 1, 1895, payable at the office of the Louisville Trust Company at the expiration of five years from date, to be signed—the bonds by the Vice-President and attested by the Secretary, and the coupons to be signed by the Secretary; principal and interest to be secured by trust mortgage to the Louisville Trust Company, as Trustee, on the College building and grounds at Winchester, Ky.; the proceeds to be applied, first to take up the present lien indebted ness on the building, and the remainder to be applied to the completion of the building and supplying furniture; the bonds to be negotiated at not less than par and accrued interest.

On motion, in Conference assembled, the report of the College Board of Education was adopted and the proposed issue of bonds, aforesaid authorized and confirmed by said Conference.

J. R. SAVAGE, Secretary.

Report No. 1 of the Conference Board of Education, Kentucky Wesleyan College.

The Conference Board of Education is gratified to report the past year a prosperous one for Kentucky Wesleyan College, and the opening for the present year the best of its history. We most heartily endorse the selection of Rev. E. H. Pearce, D. D. to the presidency of the College, and predict a new era of prosperity for the institution; provided the Conference will unite with the President in earnest labor to procure students and means with which to increase its endowment fund. We cannot afford to do less than this, when we remember the magnitude of the meaning of such an institution in its influence upon the church of the future within our bounds.

Christian education is the only possible cure for our public ills, and the only safe foundation on which the civilization of the future can permanently rest, and it becomes our imperative duty to build up and maintain our educational institutions in order to this end. A united effort will be crowned with success, in placing the Kentucky Wesleyan College upon a sure foundation, and thus insuring it as a great blessing to our people in the time to come.

We urgently recommend to our pastors and people the Advisory Board plan, as adopted by the District Conferences, in order to more thoroughly organized work in behalf of the college.

We request the Bishop presiding to appoint Rev. E. H. Pearce, D. D. to the presidency of the Kentucky Wesleyan College.

W. T. Bolling, President.

Report No. 2.

The Conference Board of Education would submit the following as our Report No. 2:

We recommend the following appointments: Rev. C. Pope, D. D., to the Presidency of Millersburg Female College; Rev. J. W. Hughes, to the Presidency of Asbury College; Rev. W. T. Poynter, D. D., Principal of Science Hill School, and Rev. T. J. Dodd, D. D., to Dodd High School. We recommend an assessment of $3,000 on the Conference for education, and $400 for Paine and Lane Institutes.

The citizens of Campton desire the church to establish an Academy at that place, and offer the ground (4 acres), $1,500 in money, and $800 per year, for four years, toward the running expenses of the school; provided the church will furnish one thousand dollars toward the building.

We recommend that the Conference take such steps as will seeme this offer and establish this school.

We offer the following:

Resolved. That we desire the Kentucky Wesleyan College speedily and well endowed, and we invite its representatives to our charges and promise our hearty co-operation in achieving this result.

Report of the Sanday School Board

The Sunday School Board would respectfully submit the following annual report:

The work of the Board this year has principally consisted in supplying the needy Sunday-Schools within the bounds of the Conference, that have asked assistance, with literature from our publishing house at Nashville, Tenn.

As will be seen from the fiscal statement below a large number of orders have been filled during the Conference year.

The several District Conferences have devoted a special day to the cause of the Sunday School, or have held a separate District Sunday School Conference.

It is with sincere sorrow we chronicle the death of Rev. D. H. Marriman, Secretary of the Board. Rev. F. A. Savage has been chosen Secretary in his place.

H. G. Henderson, President.

Report on Books and Periodicals.

To the President and Members of the Kentucky Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren.—The committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to submit the following as their report:

The report of the Book Agents referred to us, shows a business during the past year of $355,013.08; with a gain in assets of $44,877.14, and this upon a capital of $687,613.33. When we consider the financial pressure of the times, this is certainly a most gratifying showing; alike complimentary to the agents, and the church through whose assistance it has been accomplished.

That every Southern Methodist should patronize our own Publishing House, is so evidently true, that no one will call the statement in question; and the fact that $20,000 of the produce of the Publishing House was set apart from last year's earnings, for the benefit of our superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of preachers, ought to inspire our loyalty to that institution; upon the funds of which each of us by turn may become a beneficiary.

The House has a growing catalogue of useful books, and we urge upon all our people, both preachers and laity, that they use their influence to secure their increased sale and general distribution among the people.

The Christian Advocate, the general organ of the church, is one of the ablest religious papers in America—thoroughly up with the times; vigorously outspoken upon all great questions; wise and prudent in its advocacy and defense of the general and special interests of the church, and is entitled to the hearty support of every true friend of the church, whether preacher or layman. No church can make intelligent progress, unless her membership is brought in touch with the connectional interest through the connectional organ.

The Methodist Review, we are glad to learn, is now self-sustaining; and as this is the only periodical in our church, devoted to higher literature, it should be liberally supported, and thus stand out as an exponent of our best culture upon all the lines of current thought, whether religious, literary or scientific.

The Sunday School, Epworth League and Missionary Periodicals of our church are not only the equal, but they are the best of their class in this country—surely best for us.

We note with great pleasure the increased circulation of all our Sunday School literature, and the rapid increase in the circulation of the "Epworth Era," the official organ of our Epworth Leagues.

Our "Review of Missions," and the "World for Christ," are great aids in Missionary work, and should be widely circulated. We heartily commend all these publications to the hearty support of the church.

> Respectfully Submitted, J. J. Johnston, Chairman.

W. P. Dickey, Secretary.

Bible Cause.

Your committee on Bible Cause would submit the following report:

"The American Bible Society" is one of the greatest institutions in this country. Its object is to give the Holy Scriptures to all the people without note or comment. All denominations are interested in this work and are helping to carry it on. We are glad to say that our own church has done well in this regard, but we feel that it ought to do better. This society is a great help to our work as ministers in supplying the destitute with the word of God. It has brought the prices down so low, that an open Bible is accessible to all the people, and we certainly endorse most heartily its present plan to put a Bible in the hands of every child that can read. And in this connection we would insert and endorse the following resolution recently passed by the State Kentucky Sunday School Convention held at Lexington.

Resolved, That we earnestly urge the use of the Bible only during the recitation of the Sunday School lesson, except in the primary class.

We make no assessment on the Conference for this work, but since the General Conference has provided for this special work, we urge every pastor to take a collection in every society during the year.

We respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint Dr. Savage Agent.

J. O. A. VAUGHT. Chairman.

Temperance Report.

Your committee on Gospel Temperance beg leave to make the following report:

Whereus, The Word of God gives no countenance to the use of intoxicants as a beverage,

Whereas, All the deliverances of the M. E. Church, South, in its law-making body have been ringingly against that soul-destroying, iniquitous liquor traffic,

Whereas, Our position is total abstinence for the individual and total prohibition for the State,

Whereas, Our fight as a church is non-political, nor is it against the poor drunkard, but against the law that protects this giant evil, because all such law is sin,

Whereas, We rejoice that numbers of counties in our great commonwealth have local prohibition well enforced by public opinion and good officers, yet we are sorry to see still numbers of counties under the tyrannical license system, with little or no awakened conscience, and forceless officers.

Resolved, First.—That we preach at least one well prepared sermon this Conference year against this home-destroying and soul-damning business and organize our churches in Gospel Temperance work.

Second. We will make it clear to our people that our discipline is a transcript of Holy Writ, and we will stand by all right-eous efforts made to enforce discipline.

Third. We will encourage and aid in heart, head and hand all righteous efforts to secure total abstinence for the individual and total prohibition for the State.

Fourth. That by the grace of God we are in the fight till the war is over, and we will never let up till this unholy slaughtering of human souls is destroyed, root and branch.

Fifth. That we recommend the circulation of non-partisan prohibition literature. We suggest "The Soldier," published by Rev. L. L. Pickett, Columbia, South Carolina.

C. M. Humphrey, Chairman.

C. E. Boswell, Secretary.

G. W. Young.

District Conference Record.

Your committee on District Conference Records would submit their report as follows:

We have had before us the Records of all the Districts, except those of the Middlesboro District.

The minutes of the last session of the Conference of that District were presented by the Secretary, but they had never been recorded, and the Secretary reported that he did not know where the record book was.

The Records of the Lexington and Shelbyville Districts fail to give the date in the blank headlines on each page.

The Records of the Lexington District are marred by having a printed report of the Committee on Education pinned on a page instead of being recorded in script.

The Records of the Covington District are kept in an ordinary business ledger instead of the blank book prepared by the Publishing House for that purpose. The Records themselves abound too much in abbreviations.

The Records of the Maysville and Danville Districts are very neatly kept. Indeed every feature of these records met our approval and commendation.

J. M. Johnson, President. W. M. Britt, Secretary.

Epworth League.

Your committee on Epworth Leagues beg leave to make the following report:

The Epworth Leagues in our Conference are 57; last year, 32; increase 25, Number of members 2171; last year 1106; increase 1065. We are glad to note such a great increase.

Resolved, First. We look well into the purpose and scope of the Epworth League movement.

Second. We organize Epworth Leagues in all pastoral charges.

Third. We circulate our own Methodist literature, indoctrinating our young people—inspiring them to holy hearts and holy lives. Especially, do we call attention to the Epworth Era, so inspiring to young hearts to make more out of lives for God and and humanity.

Fourth. That we teach loyalty to our young people to Methodism, for we believe with Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh's mother, that genuine Holy Ghost, fire baptized Methodism is the same with Apostolic Christianity.

- No. 2. By-laws of the Society may be changed by a majority vote of the members present at a regular meeting and voting.

Sabbath Observance.

Your committee views with alarm the decadence in Sabbath Observance as evidenced by Sunday trains, Sunday mails, Sunday sports, Sunday newspapers, Sunday traffic and Sunday pleasure seeking, together with the consequent neglect of public worship, and in view of these things would urge that greater effort be put forth by the church to preserve this sacred institution, which has come down to us from Eden.

We believe that Sabbath desecration imperils our free institutions, and that as patriots as well as christians, we should guard this holy day; therefore,

Resolved, That we will faithfully teach our people, and especially the children, as to the authority, the sanctity and the necessity of the Sabbath day, and endeavor to lead them to a conscientious observance of the same.

Resolved That we will co-operate with the christian people of this commonwealth and of this nation in their efforts to secure needed legislation and to enforce the laws already on our statute books, bearing on this subject.

Resolved. That we hail with pleasure the victory recently achieved in New York City in closing the saloons on Sunday, and the growing custom of closing the business houses in our cities on Saturday noon, to give opportunity for preparation for the Sabbath, and for these evidences of the divine blessing, we offer thanks to the Lord of the Sabbath and implore His continued favor on this cause.

J. J. Dickey, Chairman. Geo. S. Savage, S. W. Speer, D. Welburn, E. S. Fogg.

Orphans' Home.

The committee on Orphan's Home respectfully submit the following report:

The Home is dear to all our hearts and worthy of our most hearty sympathy and support. It is with pleasure that we learn trom the Treasurer's report, which is herewith submitted for publication in the minutes, that "the institution has been run thepast year with a balance of $34.03."

In the absence of the Agent, Sister Brewer, who is detained at home by sickness, we were not in possession of sufficient data to give any information to the Conference concerning the internal workings of the institution. We regret that sister Brewer could not be present to represent the Home. We recommend the following:

Resolved, That we reassure the officers of our confidence in their management of the Home;

Resolved, That we will welcome the Agent to our churches and assist her in raising funds to meet the urgent demands of the Home.

C. J. Nugent. Chairman. F. A. Savage, Secretary.

J. Reeves, Secretary.

REV. HENRY M. LINNEY.

Rev. Henry M. Linney was the son of pious parents. early life was passed in Mercer County, Ky., when it embraced what is now the territory of Boyle county. He was educated at Augusta College in its best days. In his youthful zeal and vigor, the Kentucky Conference received him on trial at Lexington in After several years of acceptable service he September, 1842. was transferred to the Virginia Conference, where he married and raised a highly reputable family in the neighborhood of Gordonsville. After the war he returned to Kentucky and was married to Mrs. Knox, a very respectable, pious, Presbyterian lady. them was born a sprightly, affectionate daughter. Brother Linney's return to Kentucky he was placed on the supernumerary list, though he would have greatly preferred to remain effective, if the public taste had not demanded youthful ministers. As it was he ever delighted to preach, and made himself actively useful in every proper way. After the death of his last wife he returned to Virginia to dwell among his children. The last years of his life were devoted to the work of city missionary in Richmond. In this field of religious conflict he fell at his post, and passed from labor to reward. His writings were scholarly and entertaining, his preaching orthodox, his conduct without reproach, his memory is blessed.

D. WELBURN.

REV. D. H. MARRIMON.

Rev. D. H. Marrimon was born at Paris, Ky., August 20, 1831, and died at Petersburg, Ky., May 27, 1895. He was the son of William and Sarah Ann Marrimon In the spring of 1841 Brother Marrimon was converted in a meeting held at Harrodsburg, Ky., whence his parents had removed during his infancy. He applied for membership in the church, but was put off by the preacher, who thought he was too young. His parents dying soon after this, he went to Lancaster, Ky., to live, where he fell for a time, and was led into forbidden paths, but God arrested his steps, and through the ministry of the Presbyterians he was reclaimed, or in his own words "reconverted." As there was no Methodist church in the place, he joined the Presbyterians, and was baptized by Rev. J. Barnes, June, 1848. His union with the Presbyterians was "with the understanding that at any time he saw fit he was to be recommended to the church of his choice without prejudice."

On January 1, 1850, he entered Center College, and continued through the regular classes until the close of the junior year, when his health failed, and he was forced to abandon college. He was married January 9, 1855, to Miss Ellen Dodd, of Lincoln County, Ky. Soon after his marriage he began the study of medicine, and practiced from 1860 to 1865.

In September, 1865, he took charge of Harmony Academy, at Buena Vista, Ky. Here he found both Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. He placed his letter in the Methodist Church, and at once took an active part in church work.

At the Conference of the M. E. Church, South, held at Covington, Ky., September, 1865, eighteen preachers withdrew and went to the Northern Church, leaving many of our circuits unsupplied. Owing to the scarcity of preachers Brother Marrimon was prevailed upon to take license to preach, which he did at the Quarterly Conference of the Bryantsville Circuit, Kentucky Conference, Rev. P. H. Hoffman, presiding elder, and Rev. R H. Coleman, preacher in charge. He assisted Brother Coleman until the session of the Annual Conference of 1867, when he was received into the Conference on trial, and appointed to the Irvine Circuit. From Irvine he was sent, in 1868, to Lawrenceburg and Salvisa; in 1869, to Mackville, 1870, 1871, to Vanceburg and Concord; 1872, Tilton; 1873, 1874, Germantown; 1875, Petersburg; 1876, Oddville; 1877, 1878, Mt. Olivet; 1879, 1880, Chaplain; 1881, Lockport; 1882, 1883, Bedford; 1884, 1885, New Columbus; 1886, College Hill; 1887, 1888, Salvisa; 1889, 1890, Morning View; Augusta; 1893. 1894, Petersburg, where he 1891, 1892, Brother Marrimon was one of God's noblemen. minded, unselfish, firm, consecrated to the service of God, he was always about his "Father's business." None of the affairs of the church were unimportant in in his sight, but like a true minister he magnified his office, and gave unremitting attention to every detail of church work. He was always at his post. Whether in the pulpit, making pastoral visits, meeting official boards, or in Conference, committees, love feasts, or business session he was invariably on time.

He loved Methodism, and was jealous of her interests, and any dereliction of duty on the part of his members or deflection from established customs or doctrines on the part of his brethren in the ministry would draw from him certain and well-directed reproof.

In all the years of his ministry he retained the confidence and love of his brethren, and went in and out before the world with unspotted reputation. Brother Marrimon was not a brilliant man, hence was free from the visionary errors that are to often the companions of genius. He was a useful man, who pursued his course unswervingly, and could always be relied upon when true, devoted service was needed. He was a methodical man, a true Methodist. His business affairs were always straight. The day before he died he settled all his bills, and left his business and church matters in such a condition that a stranger could have taken his books, and made a complete report of his life work. He dreaded superannuation and expressed the wish that he might die in the work. So God ordered it. In the midst of his labors he received the summons and was ready. He preached on Sunday morning and evening, attended to his duties up to Wednesday noon, and then complained of being sick, and 9 p. m. he was dead. He leaves a wife and four daughters to mourn his departure, but the religion he recommended to others is their solace and comfort now. They are all followers of Jesus, and useful members of the church. The burial services were conducted by Rev. P. H. Hoffman and the writer according to the ritual of the church he loved so well, after which the Odd Fellows of Petersburg, Aurora and Lawrenceburg, Ind., paid loving tribute to his memory in their impressive burial service, and in the presence of a multitude of friends we tearfully laid his body in the earth in the beautiful cemetary at Petersburg, from whence it shall rise again at the last day. W. J. DORAN.

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORY OF JOHN W. PROCTOR, DANVILLE, KY.

By Board of Curators of Kentucky Wesleyan College, Kentucky Conference, Winchester, Ky., September 22, 1895:

Whereas, Since our last Annual Conference Session, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take to himself our beloved brother and co-laborer, John W. Proctor, of Danville, Ky., for fourteen years a member of the Board of Kentucky Wesleyan College; therefore, be it Resolved, By the Board of Curators of Kentucky Wesleyan College. (1). That our hearts unite with one accord to express our sorrow and deep bereavement in the absence of one, whose presence through long years was the power of an inspiration and the service of a benediction.

In all the varied and consecrated relations, which he held so long and faithfully to our fellowship for the Kingdom of Christ. none was held more nearly to his heart than the welfare and promotion of Kentucky Wesleyan College. For the College there was ever ready, the willing answer and offering of his spiritual affection, thoughtful judgment, earnest prayer and devoted service. In the work of christian education by the college, he recognized a mighty instrument of God's favor for the extension of His kingdom. By faith he looked forward to see issuing from its consecrated halls, the needed witness and work of an equipped and devoted ministry for the Church of God, in our own midst, and to the ends of earth. This feature particularly, was ever with him, a favorite meditation and utterance. quent fellowship of one with him in his years of official service for the College, this was the invariable application of his mention and discussion of its needs. His masterly paper before this body, fourteen years ago at Cynthiana, on this subject will be recalled by many now present. The service of his counsel for its necessities, called forth the ripest and best of his judgment. And that judgment was constantly brought to a throne of grace to find help from on High. He had confidence in God as its Helper and Provider. No department in the multitude of large and responsible interests committed to his trust, received more careful and conscientious regard. He studied closely the signs of the times for every portent and token, that might create a widening highway for the advancement of Kentucky Weslevan College. His suggestions and plans for its release from difficulties; for its increasing usefulness, were no less just than sagacious—no less prudent and timely, than liberal and far-reaching. Whether in secular or ministerial history, he was ever deeply interested in the record of those who had been the students of the institution. Aught that witnessed, to their capacity, their consecration and fidelity to trust, ever elicited and received his grateful regard and thanksgiving. He devoutly believed and served in the hope, that a notable and blessed future was before the college, whenever the ministry and laity of Kentucky Methodism, would prayerfully and practically unite faith, offering and work in its behalf with the power and persistence of a religious conviction. witnessed the answer to his prayer since this Conference assem-He saw no danger to its growing usefulness, except the apathy of those who had obligated themselves to support it as an institution of the church.

A favorite observation often repeated, was that "The Methodism of Kentucky, in proportion to what they had done for it, as compared with other causes, had received more and disbursed more for good, through the college in home and foreign fields of the church, than any other for which they had prayed or contributed." He was an advocate for the introduction of its co-educational feature as one which had been safely and conservatively tested and proven in the experience of its trial in over two hundred leading colleges and universities of Europe and America for 20 He believed, too, that when the noble Methodist womanhood of Kentucky were enlisted in its behalf, one of its greatest gains would be secured. Thoroughness and high standard in all departments of its class training; liberal and generous provision for all needed facilities in college equipment; adequate and suitable support for those who toiled to serve it; prompt and wise occupancy of every field that opened to receive it;—these were things never absent from head, heart and hand. Last but not least, it was a cherished ideal, which he held for Kentucky Wesleyan, that the channels of its moral and spiritual beneficience, might bear its life and power to every needy home in the mountains of Kentucky, and that to and for the youth of such homes, and in such field of service, its imperishable witness would be owned from on High and confirmed to the church and the world, with "signs following."

But a short time before he ascended to the presence of his Lord, his communicated reflection, wish and prayer was, that for the sake of the Kingdom, Kentucky Methodism from the mountains to the Misssissippi, might providentially be led to unite in the upbuilding of one strong college for the church in Kentucky, in which the unity of the spirit was to be the bond of a holy fraternity of wisdom and peace; an institution whose walls were to be salvation and whose gates were to be praise, "until the eternal morning should pale in its glories all the lights of time."

We miss him. But the genial, generous, faithful presence, the hearty greeting and grasp, the wise, patient counsel, the unfaltering devotion, though not now to view, are with us still. In fellowship, not lost, but yet serving; for "one army of the living God, to His command we bow, part of the host have crossed the flood and part are crossing now."

E. H. PEARCE.

MRS. MARY E. GODBEY.

Mrs. Mary E. Godbey (nee Wesley) was born July 22, 1858, in Casey county, Kentucky. At the age of six months her father died, leaving her to be cared for by a widowed mother. She struggled on. At fourteen she was converted and joined the Methodist Church, being devoted to the cause of her Master during her single life. At the age of nineteen she was married to Eli H. Godbey, August 21, 1877; entered the itinerant ministry with him in September, 1884.

Sister Godbey was a model wife, mother, and christian. The varied and important relations of life she adorned. Who but a compassionate Saviour can fully sympathize with the husband and children bereft of such a jewel? Walking in the ordinances and commandment of the Lord, she commanded her children after her. "Her own works praise her in the gates." Very magnetic and influential was her example and precept. She had the happy privilege of seeing four of her five children gloriously converted. She understood thoroughly and loved devotedly the doctrine and polity of her church. She could give a reason for the faith that was in her. God's Word she loved, and by faith appropriated its living truths. In 1893 she sought and obtained entire sanctification in a meeting held by her husband at Mt. Zion. Salvisa circuit, now Burgin circuit, includes this church. Consumption seized her five years ago; no human tongue can tell what she suffered, but unflinchingly she bore her affliction. Her last days on earth were her happiest. The writer visited her every day for a week before she died and she would frequently say, "I am praying for patience," and her calm and complete resignation proved that God answered her prayer. Her matured faith in Him in whom was mirrored the grace and truth of the highest God, did not fail in her struggles "with the last enemy," which came to her at 4 o'clock, March 19, 1895. she entered the valley her countenance lighted up and her spirit departed leaving a smile. Five children are left—three boys and The funeral services were conducted by her cousin, Rev. W. B. Godbey and the writer at Perryville. Her remains were interred in Perryville cemetery.

It is easy to think of her, enobled by nature, thrice ennobled by grace, as dwelling in the high places of the universe at home, amid its lofty spheres. As one by one each of the family cross the last river, may they make an unbroken family circle in God's eternal and indissoluble kingdom.

LEW G. WALLACE.

MRS. E. G. B. MANN.

Near the far-famed Estill Springs, amid the foot-hills of the distant mountains, in the quaint little county seat, Irvine, by the fresh blue waters of the Kentucky, was born May 15, 1861, to C. W. and Fannie Friend, happy, bright-lifed little Katie. Here she was reared a loving and much loved girl, with such home training as made the house of God a place of love and reverence wherever she went, and combining upon her life such social, school and church influences as go to form a refined and charming woman. In the early spring-time of life she came under the vows of the church, in which she maintained unbroken relationship, such as was common in a regular, though too formal attendance and service. At the same sacred altar, November 16, 1887, she was united by the writer in holy and happy marriage to her pastor, Rev. E. G. B. Mann, now of Taylor Street, Newport, church, Kentucky Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Upon June 11, 1895, at the same altar, from Psalms xc. 1 and 2. to a large and sorrowing congregation I preached the funeral sermon of this ascended woman, then in heaven since ten o'clock a m. of the preceding day. But how changed the scene from that bridal day. How brief their loving sojourn together. They seemed to walk down the green sward of this hopeful Elysium hand in hand just a little space, but to pass from each other forever as man and wife ere the notes of the wedding march, or of the first birds of song had died from the breeze of life's bright morning. But this bereft husband stands calm and strong, and looks far away up the direction she went, resigned to everything, as if listening to symphonies from the new harp, touched by her in the eternal temple above. Among the last words to me (he writes) she said: "Darling I am dying now, but Jesus is with me;" "God bless you, my dear husband; I hate to leave you, because you have been so good to me." To each and all of thirty or forty friends she said: "Good-bye, dear friends; live for heaven; I am going there now." "It is sweet to die." "I will soon be asleep." And finally she said: "Heaven! heaven!" and passed cut from us without a struggle. What a marvelous resignation to severance from all that was dear on earth to her. Surely, surely, heaven had sent this parting peace and power. God's will had become her will. To glorify Him had become indeed the ruling passion of her soul ever after February 1, 1893, for notwithstanding the past few years had been years of deep spiritual solicitude, years of earnest church membership, a struggling helper to her husband in his ministry, yet she herself was without a satisfactory consciousness of Divine acceptance. So in the midst of the protracted services by her husband in his church, Rev. J. O. A. Vaught happening in, preached, and she went with fixed purpose to the altar. Kneeling she searched diligently with a contrite heart (under the soul-helping songs of Prof. Fogg) for the pearl of great price—when as suddenly as unnatural to herself, she stood up before the great congregation and beckoned for silence. that she might testify to the amazing grace of life divine, and the witness of the Spirit in her soul to acceptance with God, found at the altar by implicit faith. Her husband writes, "she obtained a deeper and fuller experience about a year before her death, at the beginning of her illness. It was then that she obtained a perfect peace and perfect love, which remained in her possession constantly till the moment of her brilliant departure for heaven." This last year, an ordeal of physical suffering, subsequent to her conversion, lay before her, unseen save by her Guide, who had equipped her for the testing fires, that she might be refined as pure gold for the Temple upon Mt. Zion, and every call of duty and point of trial that followed attested her completeness in faith and patience and love. Her frail being under the stealthy march of consumption, soon began to show the unmistakable marks of approaching dissolution. But it brought no alarm. The truth was demonstrated in her, that though the outer man perish, the inner man is renewed day by day. She poised every prayer upon the pivot: "Thy will be done." She trusted for Divine healing, and her strength partially revived for a season, so that she went out from her sick chamber into the city, and what seemed a marvel to men, was possibly explained at last, in that her native place needed her death in the midst, and God had simply sent her home to die; then she might go home to live, inspiring many others to follow. But her marked improvement under faith for healing, did not unsteady her consciousness of dependence upon Him whose will was to be her will, no matter what His will might be. She spiritually discerned the Lord too well and was too pliable in His hauds to dictate in prayer or murmur at any answer. How plain the hand of answer, that guided her back to greet the dear ones, smile in loving gratitude upon the hills of majesty, and the valleys of beauty dear from childhood's first joys, demonstrate the grace of divine life in resignation to every providence, right where God wanted this witness by fire, then pass from the bosom of the family, the home of sweet memories up to the permanence of perfect conditions, and leave her depleted body, a poor clay tenement, in the home and hands of the dear ones, that the pale, smiling face might preach in silence one last sermon about God in the soul. What a vast love band met the cold, silent, wasted form at the altar of the plain old church of her childhood, girlhood and young womanhood, now to receive the unuttered ministry of the smiling dead, where through so many years she had been a Sunday school scholar and teacher, organist, auditor and aid in every effort at the church, at the altar of which she had entered the obligations of membership, those of sacred wifehood in the trial and triumphs of itinerant life, and now, alas! a center of sorrow at the same sacred place. That beautiful June morning, sitting in her easy chair, watching the removal of the boughs of the trees that obstructed her view of the dear old church, the King's orderly came from beyond the skies, with the notice to "Come up higher! Your mansion is ready—the heavenly escort is at hand; your dear ones waiting to induct you into the higher degrees of life beyond, and out of sight to time;" her busy heart—the faithful servant of every moment of all these years stood still, and Katie Friend Mann was gone to stand before JOHN R. PEEPLES. God.

MRS. HELEN M. ANDERSON.

Mrs. Helen M. Anderson was born in Louisville, Ky., November 27, 1831, died at the residence of her only son, Dr. W. H. Anderson, in Sardis, Ky., August 17, 1895. She was the wife of the late Rev. W. H. Anderson, A. M., M. D., D. D., of Kentucky Conference, and the daughter of Samuel K. and Rebecca Richardson, of Louisville. She was of Methodist stock, her father and mother both being Methodists. Her father was very active in helping to build one of Louisville's first Methodist churches; was prominent in helping to establish the Eastern Cemetery of that city, where sister Anderson was buried. Sister Anderson had four sisters and one brother. Two sisters. Mrs. H. B. Grant and Mrs. Jas. Chambers, both of Louisville, still live.

She was married to Rev. W. H. Anderson, in Louisville, on 23rd of February, 1853, by Rev. Wm. Holman; from this union there were born four daughters and one son. The four daughters, Mollie, Naggie, Jennie and Eliza, had preceded her to the grave. The son, W. H. Anderson, M. D., still lives to mourn her death. We think to the memory of both Lis departed parents he is a high credit, being of Kentucky's very promising young physicians, and a member of the M. E. Church, South, and a very efficient steward in the same; was converted last January. The daughter, Molile, lest one son, Samuel A. Vangin, a very excellent young man, whom his grandh other was privileged to see converted and join the charch last January. Elster Anderson joined the Methodist churth when very young, and I think, told me that she was con-'verted at a camp-meeting near Louisville, when, I think, she was about 13 years o'd. Obe was a woman with an unusually strong mind. Graduated at Science Hill College, She byville, Rv. Her intillectual ferver never abated—till ceath she was a student. In a wear, hour it was a treat for me to drop in and listen to her interesting and instructive conversation. She kept up with the movements of the church throughout her borders...

I found for me to know her better was to love her more. When I came to Sardis I found her in the Sunday School with a class of bright little girls who seemed fond of her, but she soon became too feeble to get to church. Her devotion to "Will and Sam" as she called her son and grandson, together with her tenderness to her son's two year old boy, was beautiful. She talked to me very freely concerning her or a soul and the spiritual welfare of "the boys," as she termed ther. She greeted me as pastor in in Sardis with the request that I do what I could for "Sam and When the restral, in which they were both converted, was held, she was not able to get to be church, but had prayer service at her house and had me to come to her room and baptize "Sam" with water from the river cordan. Her coursel was always wise and sale. Her last conversation was deeply spiritual and when I asked her about the saving power of a personal Christ, she said in substance, "It is sufficed t and I am trying to live for the last hour." I regretted that I was not permitted to be with her in her last illness. She impressed me as ripening for the gravery of the I crd. An appropriate, impressive and pathetic service was held at her son's residence in Sardis. Ky., by Rev. W. H. Childers, of the M. E. Church, of Sardis. At Louisville, Rev. J. H. Young, formerly of Kentucky Conference, very tenderly ministered the last ritualistic ceremonies at the Eastern Cemetery, where her body was left to rest with her husband and loved ones till He, who gave being, shall speak the sleeping dust to life again.
